TIPS

- Research commissioning programs. Review program websites and applicable references.
- Determine which program is best for you.
- Talk to your commander about your desire to commission.
- Find a mentor.
- Organize your tasks and establish personal deadlines to meet application requirements.
- Check websites frequently as application requirements and deadlines are subject to change.

NOTE: Thoroughly review AFMAN 36-2032, Chapter 5, and the program website(s). Each website provides explicit application instructions. If you have questions after reviewing the available information, please contact the Education Center at 4fss.fsde@us.af.mil.

All applicants are ultimately responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their package.

TEST OF BASIC AVIATION SKILLS (TBAS)

This test is required for OTS rated applicants only. Completion of AFOQT is required (minimum score requirements must be met). Three test administrations allowed; 90 days before re-test; scores do not expire. Scores available approx. 72 duty hours after testing: <https://access.afpc.af.mil/pcsmdmz/PCSMscores.asp>

If your program requires the AFOQT or TBAS, contact Mrs. Marnita Dorsey, Base Test Examiner, by email Marnita.Dorsey.1@us.af.mil, to schedule the test. Additional information/documents may be needed prior to testing. AFOQT is not available during WAPS testing cycles.

ACT/SAT and GRE/GMAT

Tests are not available on-base and are self-funded. See the applicable website below to register or obtain previous scores.
